

SOLDOTNA PUBLIC LIBRARY FACILITY USE POLICY & PROCEDURES

Meeting rooms covered by this policy include the Community Room, and Conference Rooms A and B.

The library offers the use of its meeting rooms for public meetings and programs that support the library's mission "bring the power of information, inspiration, and imagination through resources, technology, and programs to enrich the lives of all the people in our community, and to promote a life-long love of learning." Groups using library meeting rooms must meet the requirements of the General Terms and Conditions of Use and Operations stated below.

This policy does not apply to use of the meeting rooms for Library or City sponsored programs or programs sponsored by the Soldotna Library Friends.

The Soldotna Public Library follows the American Library Association's (ALA) guidelines (<http://www.ala.org/advocacy/intfreedom/statementspols/otherpolicies/guidelinesdevelopmentimplementation>) regarding access to library facilities. Soldotna Public Library meeting rooms are made available, on an equitable basis, regardless of the beliefs or affiliations of individuals or groups requesting their use.

The library encourages the widest possible use of its meeting rooms by the community within the framework of this policy, as long as meeting room use does not interfere with normal library functions. Abuse of meeting room privileges may be grounds for denial of permission for future use.
